OLD BUSINESS:

1. YOUTH DANCES – Sheila turned in next year's dance schedule to Veteran's Park & is awaiting their approval .
2. MOVIE-IN-THE-PARK - Sheila will contact Veteran's Park to find out what our half of the cost is. We will arrive at 8:00PM on Friday, 7/19. Sharon will make up raffle tickets to use up the leftover prizes from Northlake Days. Proceeds will go to the Leyden Food Pantry again. The sign is not yet up. Sharon called Liz who said it was passed on to Public Works. Sheila will contact Dale.
3. NORTHLAKE DAYS RECAP –All activities went well. Sharon suggested that we don't segregate ages for the games next year, but take whoever comes & assign an age appropriate game for each person. We did that this year out of necessity & it went very well. We all agreed that Rebecca's baby food challenge was a hit. Katreina suggested that we need better consolation prizes for teens. Sharon said we could buy something small, such as McDonald's gift certificates, to have on hand so that the teens didn't have to dig through the little kids' bucket for consolation prizes. Sharon will publicize the businesses who donated prizes in the paper. Sharon reported that only 1 set of sand was used for the crafts & we have 2 more left for the future.
