Northlake Police Dept. reports successful Memorial Day 'Click It or Ticket' campaign. Northlake, IL— Northlake Police Department today announced the results of its Memorial Day 2026 "Click It or Ticket" enforcement campaign aimed at increasing seat belt use and keeping roads safe during one of the busiest travel periods of the year.

"Thanks to the efforts of our officers, more drivers and passengers were reminded to buckle up, helping to prevent injuries and save lives," said Sergeant Chris Mowinski. "Every citation and safety check reinforces the message that seat belts work."

During the campaign, Northlake Police took the following actions:

- 13 seat belt citations issued.
- 2 uninsured motorist citations.
- 13 speeding citations.
- 40 stop sign violation citations.
- 7 cell phone violation citations
- 2 Illegal tints citations
- 1 misdemeanor arrest for suspended license
- 2 miscellaneous other citations.

The campaign's success reflects law enforcement's commitment to roadway safety and reinforces the message that buckling up saves lives.
